205 $150 $75 Two Season Tickets to the Orange County Women's Chorus 20th Anniversary Season!

Donated by Kathy and Nick Baldasari, Ellen Quandahl and Larry Wheeler and Mary and Bill Langsdorf

Remember 1997?
Google hadn't yet incorporated as a company, the median price of a house in Orange County was $211,000, and the world was just getting to know a spectacled kid named Harry Potter. But the Spice Girls weren't the only all-female singing group making news that year: 1997 was also when the OCWC was born, so we're celebrating our 20th anniversary this season with a slate of programs that pay tribute to our past while looking ahead to a bright, exciting future.

December 2 and 3, 2017: iSing of a Maiden

April 7 and 8, 2018: Haydn's Creation, collaboration with Men in Blaque

280	$100	$50	Voucher for two tickets to South Coast Repertory's production of Sugar Plum Fairy Donated by South Coast Repertory
-----	-------	------	---

The Madwoman in the Volvo is back—and Scrooge isn't the only one bitter about the holidays! With signature irreverence, NPR superstar Sandra Tsing Loh recounts her own childhood desire for a highly coveted role in the Beverly Rosann School of Dance's production of The Nutcracker. Filled with ambition, rivalry and pre-teen angst, this hilarious tale of life's crushing blows has been praised as "a comic assault on holiday sentiment" (SF Gate). Performed on the Julianne Argyros Stage at SCR.
